Actuarially equivalent (AE) standard benefits: A Medicare Part D plan that has an annual deductible, the plan may substitute certain cost-sharing requirements in defined standard coverage including tiered structures tied to plan formularies or preferred pharmacies in a plan's network.

Basic alternative (BA) benefits: A Medicare Part D plan that may have a reduced or $0 deductible, can use tiered co-payments or coinsurance, may have a modification to the initial coverage limit. Remains actuarially equivalent to the standard benefit.

Enhanced alternative (EA) coverage: A Medicare Part D plan whose value exceeds that of the defined standard coverage. The plan design includes the basic prescription drug coverage and has supplemental benefits which may include: a reduction in cost-sharing in the "coverage gap" in addition to the donut discount, a reduction in or elimination of the initial deductible, a reduction in the coinsurance or co-payments applicable during the initial coverage phase, an increase in the initial coverage limit, and/or supplemental drugs.
